From the Pastors

Come to the Water and Drink Deep

¹ Blessed is the one who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; ² but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. ³ He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. – Psalm 1:1-3

As the children, youth, and young adults of our congregation head back to school, I can't help but think of the Lord's call for each of us to be life-long learners. We have the chance to not only grow in the knowledge of his creation and world, but to grow in the promises of His grace and guidance. There is a joke that is told about a man who sat at his kitchen table in desperate prayer for God to reveal Himself and His will to the man. He prayed fervently and feverishly for God to speak to him. All that he wanted to hear was the voice of God. There was nothing uniquely wrong with the man's prayer or his yearning to draw closer to God, but there was a problem that in the midst of all of his prayers to God He never opened up the Bible which lay just three short feet away on the kitchen counter. God does not always answer our prayers the way we would like to, but He does answer. He has provided for us a way to hear the voice of the Lord for our lives in the Scriptures.

This fall, we would like to invite you to a new season with the Lord. We would like to invite you to grow in the Lord as described above in our reading from Psalm 1. While we may not be ready for it, we already begin to prepare ourselves for the coming months when leaves will change and fall, as the growing season will come to a close. Yet, for the one who delights in the words of the Lord meditating day and night it is always a season for growth—to bud and flourish with his grace. Whether it is in personal devotion or an opportunity to gather again with your longstanding small group bible study or to start a new small group, we invite you to grow deep into the Word of the Lord this fall.

God invites us to both grow deep into the sweet water of His mercy and grace, so that we may also go wide into this world, spreading our branches to bear fruit in our vocations. So many of us express a desire to make a difference in our world and to leave a lasting legacy. Perhaps that outer growth and flourishing must first start with the inner growth of our roots into the depths of God's love and forgiveness. Ralph Waldo Emerson once said, "The creation of a thousand forests is in one acorn." The life application? Great things can be unleashed from a single life, if we give it the right conditions and time to grow. After all, as Martin Luther reminds us, "This life therefore is not righteousness, but growth in righteousness, not health, but healing, not being but becoming, not rest but exercise. We are not yet what we shall be, but we are growing toward it, the process is not yet finished, but it is going on, this is not the end, but it is the road. All does not yet gleam in glory, but all is being purified."

So this fall, we invite you to come and grow with us. Look for more information to come on our weekend Bible studies, our new Fall Women's study, opportunities to be a part of a small group through a congregational study held this fall. May you be blessed in this season of life, as you grow in the lavish grace of your Lord Jesus Christ.

Closing Prayer: Lord, we desire to hear Your voice and to do Your will. Help us to turn regularly to Your Word of truth to hear Your promises that are found alone in You. Give us hearts that yearn for Your presence, so that we may remember that You are with us wherever we go. Transform our perspective of our daily lives to see that each word spoken and every act done is a chance to worship and to serve You. All this we ask in the precious name of Christ, our Savior. Amen.

God's Blessings,

Pastor Kurt Ebert

Indiana District News

Interview with the newly elected District President Daniel J. Brege. Rev. Brege will take on his new role in Sept.

Q: Tell us a little about your background.

A: I'm a third-generation pastor. My dad and my grandfather were pastors. Of course, you don't inherit the gene for being a pastor! But I did observe my dad, and I also have a brother and two brothers-in-law who are LCMS pastors. I have also been privileged to observe many faithful pastors across the Synod. There's certainly value in having good role models in ministry. In that light, I would like to commend President May for his 15 years of service. As I publicly thanked the Lord for him during Convention, I would again express thanksgiving to the Lord for Rev. May's endurance run of 15 years.

Q: How did you get started in ministry?

A: I began my career as a public school teacher. I taught middle-school math in Berrien Springs, Michigan. Later, I went back to school at Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne and graduated in 1982. My first pastorate was St. Paul Lutheran Church in Decatur, Indiana — we call it Preble — and I have served there my entire ministry of 36 years.

Q: That's a remarkable endurance run, too.

A: Yes, and I'm grateful for that experience. In his report to our Convention, LCMS President Matt Harrison described the value of long service in the pastorate. One advantage is that there's a correlation between a long pastorate and our success at retaining young people in the church. We've experienced that in Decatur. Last Sunday, we recognized between 60 and 70 children from our Sunday School program. And for a rural church, we have several youth who are active in our youth program, and more importantly, many who regularly attend the Divine Service. These young people may leave us when they go off to college, but they are, by God's grace, prepared for lives of faith in Christ. It all depends on the Word of God and proclamation of that Word.

Q: How has that commitment to the Word shaped your ministry and how will it guide your presidency?

A: The Word of God is the vehicle of the Holy Spirit. The Word of God is the means whereby people not only come to believe, but the means whereby their faith is sustained. It's the means whereby people are comforted and the means whereby forgiveness is distributed as that Word is proclaimed and as the Sacraments are administered. These are simply applications of the Word of God, which is the ultimate source of all ministry. And this is true also in the office of the District President. The Word of God is that sole vehicle and means whereby problems are dealt with and people are comforted and encouraged. The Word of God is the very foundation of our ministry together. Our District Convention focused on several outreach initiatives — proclaiming the Word of God in places like Gary, Indiana, and northern Kentucky and the Purdue University campus. I am very supportive of each of those initiatives. I've been a vice president for six years, so I've been on the Board and have been involved with these efforts. I credit Rev. Geoff Robinson and the entire Board for their persistence and desire to work on these outreach efforts.

Q: What makes the LCMS unique today?

A: I think what makes the LCMS unique is that we are confessional, which means that we hold to the Lutheran Confessions. Those Confessions were established to state with clarity our scriptural and historical Christian stance on any number of issues. And so we are a confessional church, and we say this with boldness and thankfulness.

Q: How does the Indiana District fit into that mission?

A: The word "synod" basically means walking together. We certainly can join hands with the other districts in standing for the truth of God's Word. We are also part of LCMS outreach as we continue to support the national and global mission endeavors of our Synod. We thank the Lord those opportunities are increasing.

Q: What will guide your leadership of our District?

A: The pastors of the various congregations are going to be effective if they are grounded in God's Word and if they are enabled to realize Christ's strength and the Spirit's encouragement in relation to the challenges they will experience. As District President, I will strive to continue to firmly ground the pastors in the Word, and I hope to be able to assist our pastors and congregations as they face such challenges. Of course, we are all sinful human beings — whether it be pastors or laity — so I want to be pastoral in supporting these pastors and their congregations. It's about continuing the work of the Church that has existed for centuries. I hope and pray God gives me the wisdom to be able to handle these things.

Q: There are about 100,000 members of LCMS congregations in our District. What do you want them to know about you?

A: I want them to know that I will strive for fidelity to the Word of God and to our Lutheran Confessions. And I want them to know that I will work with them and continue to keep them in prayer.

Calvary Lutheran School News from Principal Rensner

Opening the Doors to the 69th School Year

The hallways are still echoing the sounds of students as we begin looking forward to another school year in the Lord. Much energy was consumed during this past school year by our students, faculty, staff, and parents. You are to be proud of all that your child has accomplished this year. A true blessing is the growth exhibited in the Lord. Together we are equipping your children each year as they walk with their Lord. This will continue as we prepare for the 2018-19 school year.

Our theme Bible verse for the 2018-19 school year is: "Be on your guard; STAND FIRM in the faith; be courageous; be strong. Do everything in love." 1 Corinthians 16:13.

Our theme for the school year – STAND FIRM

God goes before us. We STAND FIRM in faith through the power of the Holy Spirit. This foundation equips us as His Called children to be courageous and strong. We are then to show His love to everyone and to do everything reflecting this gift of love. These opportunities are presented each day through the Christian Day School.

SGO Information

Too Good To Be True?!

God has provided a unique opportunity to help fund the Christian education of our Calvary students. The Lutheran Scholarship Granting Organization of Indiana has been identified as a new Scholarship Granting Organization. Scholarships through private and corporate donations are granted to Calvary student families whose income is less than 200% of the Federal free or reduced hot lunch guidelines.

How may I help?

Donations are currently being accepted. We are in need of $42,500.00 to fully fund these grants.

Multiple Benefits for Calvary Lutheran School students, the private or corporate donor, and Calvary Lutheran Church

1. Students and their families accepted in this program will receive a scholarship grant per child enrolled in Kindergarten -8th grade at Calvary.
2. The donor will receive a 50% Indiana State tax credit for every dollar donated. Example: A donation of $1000.00 will result in a tax credit of $500.00 towards your Indiana income tax liability as well as a $1000.00 charitable deduction on your Federal taxes if applicable. Private as well as corporate donations will receive this benefit.
3. The $42,500.00 received will eliminate the amount of money granted to our students and their families through our own budgeted funds.

Where Do I sign up?

Donor forms are available online at www.LutheranSGO.org. Be sure to mark CALVARY LUTHERAN SCHOOL as the recipient of your donation.

How Do I Proceed?

Return the completed donor form along with your donation to the School Office or directly to the Lutheran SGO of Indiana by December 31, 2018. The Lutheran SGO of Indiana will issue your tax credit statement for your 2018 tax filing.

What happens in the future?

Children receiving a scholarship grant are eligible the following school year to convert this grant to an Indiana State voucher. This again significantly reduces the need for congregational funded scholarship dollars.

Children will have the opportunity to hear God's Word each day through your giving. God continues to open doors to others once thought closed due to financial needs. Your assistance in this program is so greatly appreciated!

Have you participated in the SGO donation?

Over 65 families have participated in this process by donating over $375,000.00 during the past seven years. We are asking those past donors to enlist two other families to become involved in this "Too Good to be True" adventure. By donating in the past you are fully aware of the unique benefits this SGO provides. Please help by talking to at least two other families and enlist their participation as well.

This same opportunity is available to businesses. Take full advantage of this as you note your state tax liabilities. Please address any questions to Mr. Rensner.

Stewardship Emphasis

Stewardship Update By Rachel Daeger, Chair, Stewardship Ministry Team

Firm Foundation Campaign – Still Time to Support the Effort

By the time you read this newsletter it's likely the July 31 deadline has passed for contributions to the Firm Foundation campaign to raise $200,000 for critical repairs to Calvary facilities. As I write this we know that $178,000 has been raised and you can see the results in the new security cameras and the parking lot lighting. New air conditioning units aren't easily observed but the units well past their lifespan are being replaced. The final project is pavement and sidewalk repairs in the south parking lot so watch for updates in the bulletin and website at <http://www.clcs.org/about/news/firm-foundation-appeal-2018/> to see if we've reached the goal. If you would like to help fund this last part of the campaign you can still make an online contribution at <http://www.clcs.org/donate>. Or contact the church office at 317-783-2000 to speak with business manager Gary Bugher for other financial gifts (e.g. stock gifts, IRA distributions, etc.).

Supporting the Calvary Bazaar

Each year the proceeds from the Willing Workers/ Women in Mission Holiday Bazaar benefits three charitable causes. This year, the 51st annual bazaar to be held Saturday, November 10, will support Lutheran Military Veterans and Families Ministries, Hope Center Indy, and hand-bell refurbishment for the Calvary Music Ministry. The Bazaar is also a key outreach to our community to welcome them to Calvary and invite them to worship with us. Interested in how you can support the bazaar? Consider:

1. Invite your crafty friend to purchase a booth space to be a vendor.
2. Donate an item or service to the silent auction or ask a local business where you shop to donate.
3. Donate an item to be sold in The Attic (No shoes, clothing, building materials, or large electronics)
4. Donate a baked good for the Country Kitchen,
5. Volunteer your time to help set up, greet guests, monitor the silent auction, etc.
6. Encourage your friends to come to the event and shop!

Save the Date for Fall Time and Talent Fair

Mark your calendar for Calvary's fall Time and Talent Fair on Saturday, October 6 and Sunday, October 7. Calvary's ministry teams will set up tables in the narthex where you can ask questions about how to get involved as a volunteer or support a mission.

Third Quarter Mission Support

Each quarter Calvary's mission funds support a different organization. For the third quarter we supported Rev. Joe and Deaconess Dr. Jennie Asher's service in Germany. Joe serves as the pastor of Kaiserslautern Evangelical Lutheran Church, which serves the surrounding English-speaking community. He also reaches out and serves the United States military personnel living on the military bases in the area. Jennie organizes the children's ministry and assists with ministry to the women in the congregation. In addition, she works with the LCMS partner church in Germany, Selbständige Evangelisch—Lutherische Kirche, to coordinate globally engaged in outreach missionaries from the United States who come to Germany to assist in reaching out to refugees.

Additionally we supported the LCMS Ministry to the Armed Forces supports almost 200 chaplains, who represent the church on active duty, the reserves, the National Guard, and Civil Air Patrol. Chaplains meet the needs of military personnel and their families. Learn more about this mission serving those who serve at <https://www.lcms.org/ministry-to-the-armed-forces>

The Holiday Bazaar needs a lot of volunteers. Helpers needed before, during and after November 10. Time commitments vary and some tasks can be as simple as making phone calls. Watch for the sign up forms in the narthex and online.

Save (& Share) Your Treasures

Do you have an auction item? Are you willing to donate a service? Can you ask the company you work for to donate items and/or services? You can help make this year's SILENT AUCTION a great success! Pick up a donation form at the LWML table in the south narthex and return to Shari Shaker. We must have the items by Oct 21.

Save things to be sold in The Attic. Since space to store attic items is limited at Calvary, PLEASE bring your PRICED donations Friday, Nov. 9th from 3:30-7:00pm. If that is not convenient for you, please ask someone to bring them to Calvary at that time. (Please no clothing, large appliances or building materials.)

Support These Worthy Causes

Proceeds from this year's bazaar will benefit the Lutheran Military Veterans and Families Ministries, Hope Center Indy, and hand-bell refurbishment for the Calvary Music Ministry.

August 2018

August 5, 2018 – Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

Psalm 145:10-21; Old Testament: Exodus 16:2-15; Gospel: John 6:22-35

"The Bread of Life" - Sermon Text: John 6:22-35 - Rev. Dr. Daniel Brege

Jesus is indeed the Bread of Life. He creates life for mankind by dying and rising from the dead, thus conquering both death and its cause. He then offers himself to be eaten, which here means to be believed in. He freely gives us His gifts of forgiveness and life through Word/Sacrament, through which we are empowered by the Spirit to believe in Jesus. As we are then eating the bread of life, we indeed possess eternal life.

August 12, 2018 – Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

Psalm 34:1-8; Epistle: Ephesians 4:31-5:2; Gospel: John 6:35-40

"Try It! You'll Like It!" - Sermon Text: Psalm 34:8 - Rev. Dr. Thomas Ahlersmeyer

What one thing is so important to you that you could not imagine living without it? Spouse? Children? Physical mobility? Intellectual ability? Experience teaches that any of these can be taken from us. What is the one abiding thing that cannot be snatched from our grasp? Try it! You'll like it!

August 19, 2018 – Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Psalm 111:1-5, 9-10; Old Testament: Joshua 24:1-2a, 14-18; Gospel: John 6:51, 60-69

"Those Difficult Places" - Sermon Text: John 6:51, 60-69 - Rev. James Elsner

Life twists and turns. Our pleasant, peaceful places can suddenly become difficult places in life. Conflicts emerge in family and at work. Health declines and crisis rob us of freedom. In those difficult places, our help and hope are in God alone.

August 26, 2018 – Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Psalm 14; Old Testament: Isaiah 29:11-19; Gospel: Mark 7:1-13

"Lip Service or Heart Service?" - Sermon Text: Isaiah 29:11-19 - Rev. William Mueller

Do we merely give God "lip service" instead of true "heart service?" What difference does it make? How about God - which one does He give us?
