April 2020 Monthly Newsletter

From the Pastors

Celebrating our Partnership in the Gospel as Partakers in Grace

"3 I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, 4 always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, 5 because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. 6 And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. 7 It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace... 8 For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus. 9 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, 10 so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God." (Philippians 1:3-11).

I can't find any words more fitting for our current situation as a congregation, than these written above.

As I write this newsletter article, we have recently started our cancellation of public services for online options only. While we give thanks that we are still able to have so many tools at our disposal to meet the needs that we face, it still does not substitute the real thing of being in the presence of other believers in Christ.

I am struck by Paul's words of care and affection for the congregation in Philippi, even as he is separated by many miles and the realities of his situation. The people of Philippi are busy going about their lives as usual, but Paul finds himself under house arrest in Rome, awaiting trial before Caesar. Yet, we see the very heart of the apostle, who even at this time thinks less of himself and more of others. We hear it in his very heartfelt prayers for the people of Philippi. He remembers them regularly. He prays for them continually. He yearns for an opportunity to be with them. He speaks words of blessing over them, as he asks God to pour over them wisdom, discernment, grace, and righteousness.

I can't help but dwell upon these words, as I think over my personal experience of these past few days. It has been strange going about my daily work. School classrooms and hallways which so often are full of life have been quieted now. A sanctuary that has so often been experienced as a place of warmth and welcome seems so still and so silent at the moment. There is nothing that will press that point home more than trying to preach a sermon to an empty church. It's just not the same.

But isn't that what we all are experiencing? Things just aren't the same, even if we are trying to keep things as "normal" as possible. Every one of us has experienced the disconnect of these days. We have felt the oddity of being separated from our normal interaction with others. We have felt the unease and uncertainties of what will be next. God has created us to be relational people. He has formed us to be a connected and united body of believers. Yet, how do we respond when we are met with these challenging circumstances? Too often when we experience loss or stress or grief or change, we try to fill the silence. We try to numb the pain. We try to distract ourselves with whatever can fill our time at the moment. Today, however, I want to invite you to take some time for silence and reflection. I invite you to pause in the midst of the uneasy moments and ask, "What is God teaching me in this situation? How is God desiring me to grow in a way that I would not otherwise have had the chance to without this experience?"

We are living in what some have called the confusing "in-between." We cannot, however, rush past these moments otherwise we will miss the opportunity for God to teach us something. We cannot rush ourselves through moments of fear, worry, grief, or stress. We do not unnecessarily dwell in them forever, but we need to get in touch with them. God is still at work. God is still in control. God is still providing for our care. So, what is He inviting us to learn, even from all of this? I don't know how you might answer that question, but as for me as I stop to reflect, I think of the importance of all those little interactions that I take for granted. I think of all the people that mean so much to me, but I don't always take the time to tell them. I think of the partnership in the gospel that we have in Jesus Christ and the unique way that God is preparing us to serve others. And above all I think of each of you and I pray that even in this time of uncertainty that "your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God" (Philippians 1:9-11).

God's Peace, Pastor Kurt Ebert

Coming this Summer! Mark Your Calendars! Calvary Women's Bible Study

June 2—July 14, 2020

Book—Gideon: Your Weakness, God's Strength by Priscilla Shirer

9:00 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. sessions

When we hear the name Gideon, most of us think about his 300 soldiers or the fleece he laid out under the evening sky. But Gideon's story is so much bigger than that—bigger than any one man and his mark on Israel's history. Like everything else in the Bible, this is a story about God and His people. His love for them, as well as His strength operating in spite of their weakness—even through their weakness. And because God's people includes you and me, Gideon's story is also about us—our lives, our doubts, our struggles, and our possibilities as believers. From a state of fear, weakness, and insecurity, Gideon emerged as Israel's hero, filled with God's presence and His passion for deliverance. This study will encourage you to recognize your weakness as the key that the Lord gives you to unlock the full experience of His strength in your life. In what ways do you feel insufficient? Those places create the greatest opportunity to experience the sufficiency of God. Instead of ignoring, neglecting, or trying to escape your weaknesses, see them as the gifts that they are, given specifically and strategically by God to unlock the door of God's strength.

Signal Interference

My vehicle contains the basic AM-FM CD player. When traveling a fair distance I begin to lose the radio signal. The further that I am separated from the station's FM signal tower, the more faded, distorted, and muddled the frequency became. At times I could even begin to hear a different station broadcasting on that same frequency. Then it was time to look for another radio station that was within range.

We have relationships that may be similar to this if used as an analogy. Friends that I knew in grade school, high school, and college are distant and no longer connected. Distance and time have a way of eroding relationships. We need to stay close and connected for all our relationships to grow, thrive, and prosper. Continued communication is imperative for all relationships to remain intact. This same is true with our relationship with God. If we feel that God is far away be assured that He did not drift or roam. We are the ones that moved. God is an ever present help. He eagerly awaits our prayers. Just as I move further away from the signal tower, Satan tempts us to move away from our only source of salvation and life eternal. Through the power of the Holy Spirit we are brought back through faith. God's Word, Sacraments, and prayer provide the very heart of God's love. We join with fellow believers for worship. This builds our relationships within His Church.

Even with a basic radio in my vehicle, I have many stations to choose to listen to each time I drive. God has Called us to listen to Him and forsake the world and its beliefs that are contrary to His Word. We ask the Lord to grant to each of us discernment to listen to His voice and Calling. Our first response is one of worship. We are then fed, nurtured, and equipped to clearly see God's leading. Stay tuned in to His love and promises keeping the signal strong! This is ours to share each day with the students and their families.

School Updates

During this COVID-19 pandemic school schedules will be updated as closure notifications are announced through our state and county municipalities. We look to God as our mighty fortress as we place our trust in Him.

Thursday, May 7 is the National Day of Prayer. A special chapel service will be held on this day beginning at 8:10AM. We take it to the Lord.

ILEARN State Test Window

Students in 3rd-8th grade will take the ILEARN test between April 20 and May 29. Students will be taking their ILEARN tests online on their Chrome books. We thank our Tech Committee, Dustin Smith, and Ethan Strange for their expertise and efforts enabling this to occur.

Youth Ministry

To make sure that you have access to these materials, please join the "Calvary Lutheran Indianapolis Youth Program" Facebook group by visiting Facebook.com/CLCSYouth. Please note that you do not have to have a Facebook account in order to view this page. Live online sing along events are hosted on Mondays (and posted to watch anytime) and devotional videos are posted on Fridays. We also plan to begin having online Zoom events for different age groups. Meetings times and links will be sent out via e-mail.

We hope to see our kids back in youth group soon!

Women in Mission

Ladies' Saturday Bible Study

We will not be having the Ladies' Bible study in the month of April. Stay tuned for May's lesson.

Extravagant Sharing

Many families received paper towels and tissues through the Sharing Place of Lutheran Child and Family Services because so many at Calvary care about meeting the needs of others. Thanks to all of you who so faithfully reach out with the love of Jesus to those needing help and support in their daily lives. During the month of April let us all share extravagantly by purchasing and bringing boxes of breakfast cereal to the Extravagant Sharing shelves in the narthex. Bless others as God blesses you!

Facilities

Facilities Thanks You!

A BIG Thank You to all of those who came to help change the lighting in the church office to LED. Your help truly is appreciated.

Website Tour—Coronavirus and Video Ministry

Calvary's website is full of useful information about our mission, ministries and events. You can access it at www.clcs.org on your computers, laptops, and mobile devices (tablets and phones). Each month we "tour" different areas of the website.

Coronavirus

We are in uncharted times in our church, community and world. Who would have thought a few weeks ago that we would not be able to worship together at church; that all our worship services and Bible studies would be online? In this new reality, we pray that Calvary's website is a good way for us to keep in touch with you! As we work our way through this pandemic, you can keep up to date on the latest news, schedule changes, online opportunities, and plans by going to the Coronavirus page of our website. The link is clcs.org/coronavirus, and you can find links to it on our homepage in several places including the top of the page rotator, the blue Coronavirus Updates alert bar near the top of the page, and in the Featured News section.

This page has details of Calvary's response to the pandemic. On the left side you will find the latest update from Calvary with information about office hours, worship services, Bible studies and Sunday School, and pastoral care. There is also an option to access all the previous update messages from the church office. On the right side of the page is specific information about schedule changes due to the outbreak. Finally, at the bottom of the page is a form you can fill out and send in to pass on messages to the church office, to request more information, or request assistance for personal needs.

VIDEO LIBRARIES

Video Ministry

In response to the impact of the Coronavirus pandemic, Calvary has very quickly pushed forward with an online ministry for worship and Bible studies. This ministry has included live streaming and recorded opportunities posted primarily to our Facebook page. Facebook can be confusing for some, so we have also created a Video Ministry page on our website for quick and easy access to these resources. You can access this page at clcs.org/videos, in the menu under Worship > Online Worship, or by links on our homepage in the @Calvary and Featured News sections. This page has links to the latest Worship and Bible Study videos. It also has links to full video libraries — for Worship Services, Sermons, Bible Studies, and the new Lent 2020 Bible Reading Challenge.

On days when we are having online worship services — Wednesday Midweek Worship or Saturday/Sunday Worship — this page will also include a large section at the top which displays this worship opportunity at the normally scheduled time.

We pray that our website is a useful tool to help members and non-members explore all the opportunities there are to be a part of Calvary's mission and ministries, even in these difficult times. If you have any questions about Calvary's website, please contact the church office.

Stewardship Emphasis

Stewardship Update     By Rachel Daeger, Chair, Stewardship Ministry Team

Until we meet again... online donations

For the time that we are unable to meet in person for services please continue your faithful support of Calvary's ministry through financial contributions that provide funds for staff salaries. Your contributions can be made online as a single contribution or can be deducted on a regular basis by setting up an account through Calvary's website. Go to <https://www.clcs.org/giving/> to indicate the amount and frequency of your donation. You will have full control over the frequency and amount of each donation if desired. If you need assistance in creating your online account or designating the funds you'd like support in addition to weekly envelopes please contact Stewardship at stewardship@clcs.org. Calvary also have a mobile app to make giving convenient from Apple and Android devices. Download the GivePlus app, enter zip code 46227, and select Calvary Lutheran Church & School. If you'd like to send a contribution by mail please address to Calvary Lutheran Church, 6111 S. Shelby Street, Indianapolis, IN 46227.

Looking forward to Habitat for Humanity Build Season

Warmer weather means that construction on local Habitat for Humanity projects can begin. Pastor Art Wehrmeister is again serving as our liaison to Habitat and he has already requested possible build dates in mid to late June. Watch the newsletter, bulletin and email for information when sign ups begin. In addition to volunteer labor, Calvary as a congregation also financially supports Habitat.

Contact the church office join a ministry team or volunteer to assist

Have you been asked to serve or has the list of Calvary's open volunteer positions in the bulletin sparked your curiosity? I personally struggled for years to try and discern what God's calling was for me. But as pastor recently preached, God is walking beside me where I'm at. So while I was waiting to figure that out that calling I volunteered for the Communications Ministry Team since that is the work I did every day at my job. That just seemed logical. Along the way Calvary started projecting the service details on a screen and they needed helpers. That didn't seem like much of a calling but it was something I knew how to do. If there is something you know how to do, chances are there is a fit for that ability somewhere in the body of the church. Have a question – connect with Calvary's Director of Connection & Engagement Kara Hiatt at 317-783-2000 or connections@clcs.org.

April 2020

April 5, 2020 – Palm Sunday/Sunday of the Passion

Psalm 118:19-29; John 12:12-19; Matthew 27:11-66

“Palms to Passion” - Sermon Text: Philippians 2:8b - Rev. Shayne Jonker

Holy Week begins on the road from Jericho to Jerusalem. Jesus procures a donkey and His disciples hail Him with palm branches. They make a royal highway for Him with their coats and shout, “Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!” The mood, however, shifts quickly from palms to passion, from triumph to crucifixion. This is no ordinary King. He dies for His people and kingdom. Never has the world seen such a King as this one.

April 12, 2020 – The Resurrection of Our Lord/Easter Day

Psalm 16; 1 Corinthians 15:1-11; John 20:1-18

“Tears of Joy” - Sermon Text: John 20:1-18 - Rev. Paul Shoemaker

When a military mother is unexpectedly greeted by her child returning from deployment, the shock is overwhelming, and she may burst into tears of joy. Mary's tears of sorrow changed into tears of joy when she saw the risen Savior.

April 19, 2020 – Second Sunday of Easter

Psalm 148; 1 Peter 1:3-9; John 20:19-31

“A Genuinely Tested Faith” - Sermon Text: 1 Peter 1:3-9 - Rev. William Mueller

The Apostle Peter reminds us that our faith in Jesus Christ is a genuinely tested faith. This means that through the struggles, various trials, and other griefs that we endure, God is drawing us closer to Jesus. Our faith in Jesus may be tested, but it is genuine!

April 26, 2020 – Third Sunday of Easter

Psalm 116:1-14; 1 Peter 1:17-25; Luke 24:13-35

“Have It GOD'S Way!” - Sermon Text: Luke 24:13-35 - Rev. Dr. Thomas Ahlersmeyer

Does God's gift of faith come from a set menu, or is it served up à la carte? In what ways are we “slow of heart” to believe all that God's Word tells us? In His conversation with two Emmaus-bound disciples, the risen Lord Jesus Christ reveals the challenges and possibilities of a faith humbly determined to Have It GOD'S Way!
