Text for Personal Reflection:

“<sup>1</sup> Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. <sup>2</sup> During supper, when the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, to betray him, <sup>3</sup> Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going back to God, <sup>4</sup> rose from supper. He laid aside his outer garments, and taking a towel, tied it around his waist. <sup>5</sup> Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples’ feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him.”

(John 13:1–5)

Prayer & Reflection Questions:

Is my love for neighbors, family, coworkers, and friends as enduring as Jesus’ love?

What would need to change about my actions or attitude to love others that way?

Does Jesus love me the same way that he loved the disciples?
