

“Yet... I Will Rejoice in the Lord”

~ Habakkuk 3:17–19

Thanksgiving Eve,
November 21/22, 2020 ~ Pastor Kurt Ebert

In a year that has brought the unexpected, the unwanted, and the unwelcomed, does it mean that there is nothing there to be thankful for? As we reflect upon our individual need to give thanks, we join with Habakkuk, as he too wrestles with trust and thanks, even while going through very real hardships in life. We rejoice this thanksgiving, not in our circumstances, but in our Lord.

Full Tables

Full Houses

Guests and Visitors

Afternoon Naps

The Lions Losing...

The Mirror of Erised (Desire)

