

“Your Wisdom and Your Understanding”

~ Deuteronomy Chapter 4

August 29, 2021

~ Pastor Joshua Reifsteck

⁵ See, I have taught you statutes and rules, as the Lord my God commanded me, that you should do them in the land that you are entering to take possession of it. ⁶ Keep them and do them, for that will be your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’ — Deuteronomy 4

Found on the Internet:

1. “Why do people continue to present religion as a good for the world?”
2. “Isn’t the idea of hell ridiculous?”
3. “I finally left the Christian death cult.”

Why don’t people look at our lives and talk about the wisdom of God?

- Most people are bad Christians.
- What’s the solution?
- Do better. Try harder. Really commit.

“If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.” — 1 John 1:8

“None is righteous. No, not one!” — Romans 3:10

“Nothing is hidden except to be made manifest; nor is anything secret except to come to light.”
— Mark 4:22

We can’t fake perfect.

“God committed all to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.” — Romans 11:32

If you want to see the justice of God’s law, the wisdom of God, and the goodness of God, look not to man but to Christ.

“Jesus Christ became both just and the justifier of all who believe.” — Romans 3:26

“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.” — Matthew 5:17
