

“You Lack One Thing”

— Mark Chapter 10

God doesn't want to be part of your Sunday or part of your budget or part of your daily routine. He wants it all.

I have done all these things since my youth! — Mark 10:20

Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, “You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me. —Mark 10:21

Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. —Mark 10:22

What would He say you lack?

How would He ask you to change?

What shortcomings would He reveal in your faith?

What do we really lack and need? Jesus.

While we were yet far from Him, Christ died for us.

In every way that our love and faith fall short, He is faithful to us.
