

“Lord, Teach Us!”

Sermon • Luke 11:1–13

Sermon Series: Pentecost

1) The need to unlearn.

Now Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray...”

(Luke 11:1)

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.

(Romans 8:26)

2) The need to relearn.

And Jesus said to them, “When you pray, say: “Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation.”

(Luke 11:1)

3) Meditating upon the One who knows all our Needs.

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are!

(1 John 3:1)

And because you are sons and daughters, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba! Father!”
